

Application for registration as a Student-at-Law

Form 1 Instructions

Legal Profession Admission Board

GPO Box 3980 Sydney NSW 2001
Telephone: 02 9338 3500 | Email: lpab@justice.nsw.gov.au
Website: www.lpab.justice.nsw.gov.au

Use this form if you wish to apply for registration as a Student-at-Law for the Legal Profession Admission Board's Diploma in Law course. This form can be used to make an application under Rule 28 of the NSW Admission Board Rules 2015.

Registration is required prior to enrolment. Upon successful registration you will be notified of the enrolment procedures. If you have previously registered with the Board's course in the past, you would not be required to register again. Please contact Student Services for more information on 02 9338 3500 or email lpab@justice.nsw.gov.au

Applicants are required to be residing in Australia for the duration of their candidature for the Board's examinations. Please contact the LPAB office if you wish to apply for an exception to this requirement. The Board's examinations are not registered as a Course for Overseas Students and registration as a Student-at-Law does not confer any visa entitlement.

Instructions for completing form

Your application may be delayed if you have not completed every question. The form may be completed and signed electronically or printed out to complete and sign. You may scan and email your application to lpab@justice.nsw.gov.au

Part A: Personal details and examination option

You must provide 100 points of identification and complete your personal contact details. Please also attach a digital colour passport style photo in .jpg format.

You must select an examination option.

Part B: Qualifications for entry and academic exemptions

You may qualify to register as a Student-at-Law if you meet one of the criteria listed on the following page. Using the table, insert the entry category number applicable to your qualification on the application form.

You will need to supply a copy of the documentation indicated in the table. Indicate whether or not you have received or applied for academic exemptions. If the Board is already in possession of documentation that satisfies the entry criteria, you are not required to resubmit the documentation with this application.

Part C: Declarations

Carefully read and answer the declarations. If you have a disclosure, please include a separate statement and attach any supporting documents. Note: if you answer this untruthfully, you may be excluded from the course at any time.

When to apply?

To be considered for commencement in the May semester, you must lodge your application by 1 March. To be considered for commencement in the November semester, you must lodge your application by 1 September. We suggest you do not delay your application until the cut-off dates. The earlier you apply, the earlier your application is likely to be considered. Late applications may not be approved.

Attach all the required documentation

The form will indicate which documents you are required to attach to your application, according to your own particular circumstances.

Please ensure you attach all the required documentation. Your application cannot be processed if any of your documentation is missing.

Send us your form and your fee payment

The application fee is available on the Board's website. Payment must be made via the LPAB website using credit/debit cards (Mastercard or Visa only).

Scan and email your completed form, together with the required documentation and your receipt for payment of the application fee, to the Legal Profession Admission Board at lpab@justice.nsw.gov.au
