PART C: Criteria for special exemption

Q.7 Please indicate the criteria you are relying on (Refer to Section 12 of the Guidelines for exemption from the IELTS test). Tick as many boxes as applicable.

i	Employment for a substantial period of time ¹ in a law-related role in one or more Category T countries.	<input type="checkbox"/>
ii	Completion of a tertiary undergraduate degree (other than your qualification in law), which is a pre-requisite for entry to a profession in a Category T country and with the medium of instruction being English.	<input type="checkbox"/> iii	Completion of both secondary school and the academic qualification in law upon which you rely for admission in one or more Category V countries and with the medium of instruction being English.	<input type="checkbox"/> iv	Completion of the Higher School Certificate (or equivalent qualification) in Australia, having undertaken your entire secondary school education in Australia and having achieved excellent marks in English.	<input type="checkbox"/>
v	Having undertaken the IELTS test and achieved all the specified minimum scores across multiple instances of sitting the test within the previous two years, although not in a single instance of sitting the test.	<input type="checkbox"/>

¹ A substantial period of time usually means a minimum of at least 12 months' continuous service in a full-time role. Applicants who meet or exceed the minimum period of time are not guaranteed a special exemption, because a range of other factors must be considered, such as the nature of the applicant's role and the level of responsibility.
