SUCCESSION

Time: Three hours (plus 15 minutes reading time).

Permitted Materials: This is a closed book examination. No materials are permitted in the examination room. Attached to this paper is a copy of the Prescribed Topics and Course Outline.

Instructions:

Pages 1 to 19 of this paper are question pages and pages 21 to 36 are pages of attachments.

This paper consists of five (5) questions (with subsections).

Question 1 is compulsory.

Candidates must complete three (3) of the remaining four (4) questions.

If a candidate answers more than the specified number of questions, only the first four (4) questions attempted will be marked.

Each question is worth 20 marks.

All questions may be answered in one examination booklet.

Each page of each answer must be numbered with the appropriate question number.

Candidates must indicate which questions they have answered on the front cover of the first examination booklet.

Candidates must write their answers clearly. Lack of legibility may lead to a delay in the candidate’s results being given and could, in some circumstances, result in the candidate receiving a fail grade.

Candidates must NOT write their names on or anywhere inside the answer booklet.

Candidates are permitted to refer to persons and properties referred to in the questions using shorthand (A), (B), (C) and the like. Short form references to legislation (e.g. SA 2006) are also permitted.

This examination is worth 80% of the total marks in this subject.

Answers submitted must be a candidate’s own work. Reproducing material without attribution may constitute plagiarism. Sources quoted must be acknowledged in accordance with accepted referencing conventions.

Candidates are warned that cheating and/or bringing unauthorised material into the examination room may result in instant expulsion from the examination and may result in exclusion from all further examinations.

THIS EXAM PAPER MUST NOT BE REMOVED FROM THE EXAM ROOM
