

Law of Associations
Examiners Comments
March 2021

As in past examinations, all topics in the course, except Insolvent Trading, were covered in the examination questions. The topic Insolvent Trading was the focus of a compulsory assignment.

There were 6 questions in the examination, of which candidates were required to answer 4. The questions were of equal value and there were no compulsory questions.

It was expected of the examiner that candidates would be fully conversant with the entire course having regard to all relevant legislation and case law covered in the course. Candidates generally displayed a fair to good understanding of the principles covered in the course and the practical application of those principles.

81 candidates sat for the examination. Final marks of those candidates who passed the examination, were in the range 50%-78%. 32 candidates were awarded a Pass grade, 38 candidates were awarded a Pass Merit grade, 3 candidates were awarded a Pass Distinction grade. 8 candidates failed. The grades were generally consistent with past results.

As the examination was a confidential examination, these comments cannot identify the specific issues in the questions.
