

Legal Profession Admission Board

Students must use this form to apply for a relaxation of the exclusion rules, i.e. a breach of r64, 65 or 66, or after a failure to comply with a previous r67 decision.

Please refer to the NSW Admission Board Rules 2015 or the LPAB website for more details and payment options.

Applications MUST be submitted electronically to: lpab@justice.nsw.gov.au. Students are cautioned that if a duplicate of this application is submitted and duplicate fees are received by the Board it is unlikely that fees will be refunded.

Student Name:

Student Number: Telephone:

Postal Address:

Email Address:

Enter the Semester (1-Summer or 2-Winter) and Year that you wish to enrol in:

Semester: Year:

Select the subject(s) that you wish to enrol for this session:

Application Checklist:

- I have attached relevant supporting documentation, eg. medical certificate.
- I have attached the receipt for my fee payment with this application.
- I have attached a declaration clearly setting out the reason(s) why I have not made sufficient progress or, why I have had difficulty with the subject repeatedly failed or, why I failed to comply with the LPAB's previous r67 decision.
- I am not lodging an application for enrolment with this application and will wait for the Board's decision before doing so.

Signature

Date signed (dd/mm/yyyy)

Declaration in support of my R67 application

I, (full name of declarant)

of (address)

sincerely declare that:

I confirm the above is true and correct.

Signature

Date signed (dd/mm/yyyy)

All fee payments are subject to the LPAB's Refund Policy which is available at www.lpab.justice.nsw.gov.au.
As a general rule, the LPAB will not refund a fee payment, once it has been received.